

Performance Lab 115 presents

MOURN THE LIVING HECTOR

"PL115...affirms the potential for inventive transformation." – Village Voice

Performance Lab 115 Presents

MOURN THE LIVING HECTOR

By Paul Cohen

Winner of two Fringe Excellence Awards, PL115 returns to investigate wartime violence on the home front, interweaving the Trojan hero's last day with the home-leave of an American Marine; a comedic tragedy of ambient violence, failed connections, and unexpected happy-endings.

With Jeff Clarke, Liz Eckert, Birgit Huppuch*, Rachel Jablin, Rebecca Lingafelter*, and David Skeist

Directed by Shira Milikowsky and Julie Rossman

Set Chisato Uno, Sound Mark Valadez, Lighting Dans Maree Sheehan,

Costumes Sarah Cabbage, Graphic Design Rachel Berger,

Associate Producer Sara Buffamanti, Publicity Melanie Sylvan

*Appearing courtesy of Actor's Equity/Equity Approved Showcase.

DATES

8/14 9:45P 8/21 5:00P

8/16 2:45P 8/23 9:30P

8/18 7:30P

LOCATION

The Flamboyant Theatre (CSV Cultural Center)

107 Suffolk St (b/w Rivington & Delancey)

F train to Delancey Street, J/M to Essex

For more information visit www.performancelab115.org

fringe_{NYC}

THE NEW YORK INTERNATIONAL FRINGE FESTIVAL
A PRODUCTION OF THE PRESENT COMPANY

AUGUST 8 TO 24, 2008

FOR TICKETS ($15) AND INFORMATION

866.468.7619 * WWW.FRINGENYC.ORG